

Granada: Spanish & Local Life

A two-week Spanish language and cultural immersion program for travellers 50+

Welcome to your placeta

In Granada, a 'placeta' is a hidden square where neighbours meet to share stories, time, and life. Welcome to your placeta.

Granada: Spanish & Local Experience is not just a Spanish course. It's a two-week program built around one simple idea: language is the gateway, connection is the point. You'll learn practical, everyday Spanish in the mornings, and spend your afternoons living Granada alongside the people who call it home.

Who this program is for

- Adults 50s and over
- Beginner-level Spanish
- Travellers who want more than a tour: a real, if brief, sense of belonging to a place

What makes it different

Most language programs teach you Spanish in a classroom and leave the rest of the day to sightseeing on your own. This one is built differently: it includes structured time with local Granada residents (your own age, your own pace) so the language you learn in the morning gets used, for real, that same day.

What's included

- Spanish and cultural classes (20 hours over two weeks)
- Accommodation for 13 nights (private single room, en-suite bathroom, breakfast included)
- Full liability insurance
- On-the-ground program coordination throughout your stay
- All excursions, workshops, and cultural visits described below
